Coaching

Reach your next level –
with us by your side!

No matter what type of snowsport you participate in, whether you are new to the sport or already half a pro, we will help you elevate to the next level. Our highly educated teachers will support you depending on your individual expectations. You will be able to profit from our personal experience and gain tons of insights to develop your technique, to save energy while skiing and to reach your goals. What's best about this: Promise, we will never lack the fun factor.

Guiding

We know all the secrets...
but psst, don't tell them!

It's always hard to decide on what to do. But, not with us. Depending on weather or snow conditions, we will pick the appropriate location and slopes for you. In regards of knowledge about locations we can count on over 20 years of experience and we will know which snow paradise will be appropriate for you. We will show you the most amazing spots all over Central Switzerland – and even further.

Freeride and Touring

Freeride and Touring –
the amazing experience

Enjoy the freedom of riding down off trail slopes. With the right equipment we will ski through the deepest snow and depending on conditions even more. A super exclusive experience! Or would you rather go and find trails away from civilization? Put the fur on your skis, hike up the mountains and experience the mountains and nature of Switzerland with a totally new perspective.

Organisation

So that winter «fun»
deserves it's name

From A like arrival to Z like Znacht (dinner in Swiss) – we organize the snowsports day with everything included. Transportation by car or with the helicopter, choice of the right ski resort and whatever else is needed. Lay back and enjoy a winterday with no stress in our beautiful mountain world. This will be "tip of the iceberg" of your winterwonderland.
